2018 Hermann Weyl Prize

Call for nominations

Dear Colleagues,

We invite you to nominate young and promising scientists for the 2018 Hermann Weyl Prize awarded by the Standing Committee of the International Colloquium on Group Theoretical Methods in Physics (ICGTMP).

The purpose of the Hermann Weyl Prize is to provide recognition for young scientists who have performed top level original work in the area of understanding physics through symmetries.

The Prize, which is awarded every two years, consists of a certificate citing the accomplishments of the recipient, prize money, and an allowance towards attendance at the ICGTMP in Prague, July 9-13 2018, where the Prize will be awarded.

To be eligible for the Hermann Weyl Prize, the candidate should be either 35 years of age or younger, or be within 5 years of having received the doctoral degree, at the time of the deadline of the application.

Candidates should be nominated by or through the members of the Standing Committee of ICGTMP

Each nomination should include:

1. The relevant work of the nominee (open access links are OK) together with a summary of up to 4 pages of her/his work.
2. A brief CV of the nominee.
3. A letter from the nominating scientist introducing the nominee and appraising his/her work.
4. At least two letters of support for the nomination. These letters cannot be from the members of the Selection Committee.

The deadline for the nomination of candidates is DECEMBER 15, 2017.

The members of the 2018 Weyl Prize Selection Committee are

M. A. Lledó (Valencia Univ.), Maria.Lledo@ific.uv.es

S. Sheikh-Jabbari (IPM, Tehran), jabbari@theory.ipm.ac.ir
